

Activity Value

The diagram illustrates a hierarchical tree structure with five levels of nodes, represented by rectangles. The root node is at the top, branching into two nodes. These two nodes further branch into four nodes, and finally into eight nodes at the bottom level. The nodes are arranged in a way that shows the branching process from a single root to a full set of leaf nodes.

KIRC

PAAD

UVM

PAAD

GG

KIRC

UVM